

09/13 Sunghyun Hwang

Sunghyun Hwang is an HR (Human Resources) professional with 22 years of experience in various industries. He was born and raised mostly in Korea and moved to US about 4 years ago with his family and he is currently working as an HR Business Partner for Engineering division of Google Inc.

Prior to Google Inc., he was a Head of HR for Google Korea., co-founder and senior consultant of Linkage Korea, senior consultant for Towers Perrin, a head of HR/G&A for Yahoo!Korea, Compensation manager for Applied Materials Korea, and an HR specialist for SK Network.

As Sunghyun has unique experiences both in corporate HR from various industries and HR/Org. consulting firms, he is passionate about helping people and leaders grow and developing organizations. He is also actively mentoring and coaching Asian Googlers as a career guru at Google Inc.

09/20 Michael Lee

S. Michael Lee was born in Seoul, South Korea and immigrated with his family to the United States at the age of one. His first name is Sang-Hyun and Michael is his middle name. He graduated with Academic Honors and a BA in Political Science from UC Berkeley in 1994.

He received a JD from the University of San Diego School of Law in 1998. He has been a Deputy District Attorney at the Santa Clara County District Attorney's Office since 1998. Handling a wide variety of criminal assignments including several years in the Narcotics Unit, Central Felonies Unit, the Economic Crimes Unit, he is currently a team leader in the Misdemeanor Unit.

In 2010, he was recommended by Stanford Law School to participate as the first Fellow assigned to the South Korean Ministry of Justice Prosecutorial College to teach comparative criminal law. During this fellowship he and his family resided in South Korea for six months as he taught multiple classes on U.S. criminal law to South Korean Prosecutors. Since 2013, he has served as a member of the Board of Directors and now Chairman of the Silicon Valley Korean School (SVKS). SVKS, with over 1,000 students, is the largest Korean school outside of Korea itself. The school operates on Saturday mornings on the Cupertino High School campus.

09/27 Hyun Park

Hyun Park, with over two decades in the legal sector, is senior vice president and general counsel for PG&E Corporation and its businesses, including its principal subsidiary, Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Park oversees the legal and corporate secretary functions.

Prior to joining PG&E Corporation in 2006, he was vice president, general counsel and secretary at Allegheny Energy, Inc. Park previously served as senior vice president, general counsel, and secretary of Sithe Energies, Inc. He also was a partner with the law firm of Latham & Watkins, where he specialized in corporate transactions and finance.

Park is a graduate of Harvard Law School. In addition, he holds a graduate degree in economics from Oxford University and a bachelor's degree in economics from Columbia University. He is a member of the State Bar of California and serves on the boards of directors of the SF-Marin Food Bank and the California Minority Counsel Program.

10/04 Anny Hong

Anny Hong joined KRON 4 in 2012 from the CBS affiliate in Washington, DC, WUSA 9. Prior to that, she worked at KOVR, the CBS affiliate in Sacramento, Calif., where she worked as a Meteorologist/Reporter/Anchor.

Most recently, she spent a year in Paris studying French at the Sorbonne University. She also took a few cooking courses at the Cordon Bleu, although she considers herself more of a baker (still working on the cooking!).

Anny was born and raised in Eugene, Oregon, home of the University of Oregon Ducks. While she did take courses at the U of O during her senior year of high school, Anny considers herself an Orange-woman after graduating with honors from Syracuse University in Upstate New York. Anny's first job was during her senior year in college. She was a one-man band reporter in Watertown, New York. Anny loves playing tennis, going to Tahoe to hike or ski, and traveling with her super-friendly maltese, Mochi. If you see them around town, please say hi!