

Application Guidelines for International Students

- 2026 Fall Semester -

1. About the Graduate School of Korean Studies

The Graduate School of Korean Studies is an affiliated institution of the Academy of Korean Studies(AKS), which is funded and administered by the Korean government. It was established in 1980 to nurture scholars contributing to the development and globalization of Korean studies, through a liaison between the AKS' research capacity and graduate education.

As a research-oriented institution in the fields of humanities and social sciences pertinent to Korea, the Graduate School of Korean Studies has maintained its commitment to the highest quality teaching and research through eminent professors' close mentoring of students for the past 45 years. Our graduates are playing pivotal role in the various educational and research organizations of Korean studies around the world with their academic excellence.

Currently, approximately 200 students are enrolled in the Master's and doctoral degree programs at the institution, including about 110 international students from 38 countries.

Scholarship

- Applicants are required to save information at studyinkorea.go.kr.
- An ID photo and required documents should be uploaded.
- Accurate information (a full English name as shown in the passport, a contact number, an email address, etc.) should be provided.

B. Personal Statement

- A prescribed form (Attachment 2) should be completed in Korean and the file should be uploaded on the application website.
 - Applicants for Korean Cultural Studies are allowed to write it in English.
- A personal statement should include self-introduction(applicants' backgrounds, academic life, social activities, view of life, strengths and weaknesses, etc.) and study plan(reasons of application, academic goals, areas of academic interest, future plan after obtaining a degree, etc.).

C. Research Plan

- A prescribed form (Attachment 3) should be completed in Korean and the file should be uploaded on the application website.
 - Applicants for Korean Cultural Studies are allowed to write it in English.
- A research plan should include a research topic, reasons of choosing the topic, review of the previous research, research details (research method, distinct feature of the research, etc.) and bibliography.

D. A Graduation (or an Expected Graduation) Certificate(s) for All Previous Degree(s)

- A scanned copy of the certificate(s) should be uploaded on the application website.
- Certificates must be written in Korean or in English. If not, they must be translated into either in Korean or in English and notarized.
- Applicants for a doctoral degree program should submit graduation certificates of both bachelor's degree and Master's degree.

- If applicants who expect graduation cannot submit such a certificate due to the schools' timeline, certificate of enrollment and official transcripts which show their latest grades should be submitted. The apostilled or consular-confirmed graduation certificate and final transcripts should be submitted before the semester begins on 1 September 2026, failure of which may lead to cancellation of admission.
- Successful applicants who are finally selected are required to submit an original copy with an apostille by post.

E. Official Transcript(s) for All the Previous Degree(s)

- A scanned copy of the official transcript(s) should be uploaded on the application website.
- Documents must be written in Korean or in English. If not, they must be translated into either in Korean or in English and notarized.
- Applicants for a doctoral degree program should submit official transcripts of both bachelor's degree and Master's degree.
- If an applicant has transferred from one university to another, official transcripts should be submitted from both universities.
- The official transcript must show not only grades of each subject but also one of the following information for the whole period of study:
 - ① CGPA(Cumulative Grade Point Average) and a scale (e.g. 3.7/4.0)
 - ② Score percentile (e.g. 83/100)
 - ③ A rank at the school (e.g. 5th among 50 students)
- If a transcript does not include the above information, applicants should submit an official document issued by the university describing the university's grading system.
- Successful applicants who are finally selected are required to submit an original copy with an apostille by post.

F. An Official Score Report of a Language Proficiency Test

1) TOPIK (or TOPIK IBT)

- Applicants except for Korean Cultural Studies should upload a scanned copy of a score certificate of TOPIK level 4 or above which is valid as of the application deadline.

- Applicants for Korean Cultural Studies do not need to submit a TOPIK certificate, but those with a TOPIK certificate can be given preference.

2) TOEFL, IELTS, or TEPS

- Applicants for Korean Cultural Studies should upload a scanned copy of one of the following score reports obtained within 2 years as of the application deadline.

- In the following cases, applicants are exempt from providing a score report.
 - Applicants are from a country where English is an official language.
 - Applicants obtained a degree at a university or a graduate school whose medium of instruction was English and submit an official letter from the school proving such.

G. Proof of Applicant's Nationality

- One of the following documents should be submitted :
 - The first two pages of a valid passport
 - An original copy of the (notarized) certificate of nationality

1) MyBest Scores are the highest scores on each section (Reading, Listening, Speaking and Writing) from all of the test taker's valid TOEFL iBT test scores from tests taken in the last two years, and a total score that is the sum of the MyBest section scores.

2) The TOEFL iBT Home Edition is the same TOEFL iBT test an applicant would take at a test center, just taken from the privacy of his/her own home and monitored online by a human proctor.

H. Application Fee

- Amount : 50,000 KRW (or 50 USD)
- Applicants must pay the fee online after completing the application form.
- The application fee must be paid at the time of submitting the online application form.
 - ※ The payment method and payment period follow the policies of the designated application portal (www.studyinkorea.go.kr, National Institute for International Education).
- Once the application fee is paid, the application can't be cancelled and the fee can't be returned. However, under the circumstances where applicants inevitably had to withdraw the application due to natural disaster, negligence of the university or a fault which is not attributed to the applicant, the fee can be returned.

I. A Letter of Recommendation

- A recommender should complete a prescribed form (Attachment 4) either in Korean or in English, and send it by email to admission_intl@aks.ac.kr from his/her own email account. A letter of recommendation sent from an applicant's email account is not acceptable.
- A recommender should be a professor of the university where the applicant studied who is in the position of evaluating applicant's academic competence.
 - ※ If the above is not feasible, it is acceptable that a person in the academia such as a professor of other universities or an instructor from a language school, or an expert in the relevant field writes a recommendation letter.
 - ※ A letter of recommendation written by a supervisor at work who is neither an academic personnel nor an expert in the relevant field is NOT acceptable.
- In a letter of recommendation, the name / position / organisation / address / phone number / email address of the recommender should be included.
- A letter of recommendation is acceptable only if it is sent directly from a recommender by submission deadline. Late submission is not acceptable.
- Once a letter of recommendation is received, an acknowledgement is sent to the recommender.

J. An Abstract of a Master's Degree Thesis

- Only applicable to a doctoral degree program applicants who obtained a Master's degree by writing a thesis

- A one-page summary of a Master's degree thesis should be submitted either in Korean or in English.
- Applicants who are expected to graduate and haven't completed their thesis yet are also required to submit a summary of their thesis.
- If the abstract is written in a language other than Korean or English, it should be translated into either language, in which case notarization is not needed.
- If applicants obtained a Master's degree without writing a thesis, a note explaining such should be uploaded instead of an abstract.

K. A Master's Degree Thesis

- Only applicable to interviewees for a doctoral degree program who wrote a Master's degree thesis as part of graduation requirement
- A soft copy of a Master's degree thesis should be sent by email (admission_intl@aks.ac.kr) before the day of interview. A thesis written in a language other than Korean or English doesn't need a translation.

L. Parent(s)' Proof of Citizenship and Family Relationship Document

- Official certificates such as birth certificate or family register issued by a government that proves family relationship between an applicant and his/her parents and their citizenship
- If one cannot submit necessary documents due to an absence of their parent(s), e.g. deceased or divorced, he/she can provide additional documents (e.g. death certificate, divorce certificate/agreement, or the court's written judgment that confirms parental rights) that explains the reason for not submitting their proof of citizenship.
- If applicants' or their parents' citizenship information is not indicated in the above documents, valid passport copies (do not need to be apostilled or consular confirmed) should be submitted as supplementary documents.
 - Ethnic group, birth place, or current residency in the submitted documents are NOT accepted as a citizenship information.
 - If passport is not available, another government issued document that clearly indicates citizenship information should be submitted as a supplementary document.

M. Verification of Deposit

- 1) To apply for a student(D-2) visa at a Korean consulate after admission, students must obtain a Certificate of Admission issued by the Graduate School of Korean Studies.
- 2) Requirements for issuing the Certificate of Admission, specifically regarding financial documentation, are as follows:
 - Applicants must submit an original copy of the bank balance certificate by postal mail to the Graduate School of Korean Studies. The certificate must be issued under the name of the applicant or an immediate family member.
 - Minimum required bank balance:
 - For recipients of the Government Grant provided by the Graduate School of Korean Studies : 5,280,000 KRW
 - For all other applicants : 14,880,000 KRW
 - A bank statement should be current, i.e. produced within 30 days as of documents submission.
 - For bank balance certificates issued by banks located in China, the validity period (deposit freeze period) must be at least 30 days from the date of document submission.
 - If a bank statement is issued under the name of a student's family member, a letter of sponsorship [Attachment 5] and a certificate of family relations should be submitted.
 - Students who receive scholarships (tuition fees and living expenses) from other institutions and organizations outside of the Graduate School of Korean Studies can substitute financial proof documents with a scholarship confirmation issued by the respective institution or organization.
- 3) Please note that the financial requirements for obtaining a student (D-2) visa from a Korean consulate may differ from those for the issuance of the Certificate of Admission. Therefore, applicants must verify the exact amount and conditions with the relevant Korean consulate in advance and prepare accordingly.

N. Health Check Results

- Health check results issued by a public health center or hospital/clinic
- Dormitory residents must additionally submit tuberculosis (chest X-ray) test results.

O. Apostille

- Apostille is a way of legalization of a document according to the Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents (“Apostille Convention”). It ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be considered as valid in another signatory country. For the list of signatory countries, please refer to <https://www.hcch.net> - Members & Parties – HCCH Members.
- Successful applicants are required to submit apostilles or other verifying documents for their final degree and official transcript by post during the designated period.
- Apostilles or verifying documents must be written in English, otherwise a notarized translation should be submitted.

1) Students who graduated from institutions in signatory countries of the Apostille Convention

- Apostilles of the diploma and official transcript should be submitted.

2) Students who graduated from institutions in China

- Verification of degree* and official transcripts available at www.chsi.com.cn of China Higher Education Student Information (CHSI, 学信网) should be submitted.
- * Only verification of degree, NOT verification of graduation, is acceptable.

3) Students who graduated from institutions in non-signatory countries of the Apostille Convention

- Verification of the diploma and official transcript by a Korean consulate in a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located or by a consulate of a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located in Korea should be submitted.

4) Students who graduated from institutions in Korea

- Additional verification is not required. An original copy of the certificate of graduation and official transcript suffices.

- Academic verification documents issued upon individual application are acceptable within the validity period (usually 6 months). However, if it is not feasible to have additional copy in addition to the original one, it is fine to submit a certificate that was issued more than 6 months ago.

9. Important Notes for Applicants

- A. Applicant's information provided in the application form must be authentic and truthful. If provided information turns out to be false or untruthful, the applicant's admission can be revoked.
- B. When writing a personal statement or research plan, the use of artificial intelligence (AI) should be avoided to ensure that the applicant's original and individual experiences and thoughts are clearly reflected.
- C. If AI tools are utilized during the preparation process, it is encouraged that applicants disclose this transparently. Please note that excessive dependence on AI or any form of plagiarism may result in disadvantages during the evaluation or possible disqualification. Ethical use of AI - such as for grammar or typographical corrections - is acceptable. However, using AI for tasks such as drafting essays or translating entire sentences is considered inappropriate.
- D. Additional documents might be requested, if they are considered necessary for the admission process.
- E. The scores/grades of the admission are not open to the public including applicants themselves.
- F. Documents submitted will not be returned.
- G. All of the certificates should be written in Korean or in English, otherwise they need to be translated and notarized.
- H. A certificate of admission which is required to apply for student(D-2) visa is offered to successful applicants only after an original copy of verified academic certificates and a bank statement is received.

10. Other Information

- A. Tuition-Exemption Scholarship is offered to all international students during their coursework period unless they are placed under academic probation or disciplinary actions are taken against them.
- B. Selective international students who showed excellence in admission scores are provided with the Government Grant.
- C. Students should pay their boarding fees and other living expenses at their own expense.
- D. For admitted Korean nationals residing abroad, graduation requirement in terms of curriculum to follow is the same with the one for international students.
- E. Obligation to Achieve TOPIK Level 6 (or TOPIK Level 4) for Graduation
 - International students must achieve TOPIK level 6 (or level 4 for Korean Cultural Studies major) to be eligible to submit their thesis for graduation.
- F. Health Insurance
 - 1) Foreigners with student(D-2) visa are compulsorily subscribed to the local subscriber scheme of the National Health Insurance from the day of foreigner registration and should pay about 75,000KRW of monthly premium (50% of the average rate of all foreign subscribers). This allows international students to receive the same insurance benefits and health checkups as Korean citizens do. However, failure to pay the premium in time may lead to limited insurance benefits and unfavorable measures in relation to visa extension.
 - 2) Students with overseas Korean(F-4) visa are also compulsorily subscribed to the local subscriber scheme of the National Health Insurance and should pay approximately 150,000KRW of monthly premium (the average rate of all foreign subscribers).
 - 3) For more information, please visit the National Health Insurance Service at <https://www.nhis.or.kr>.

11. Research (Non-Degree) Program

- A. Applicants for the research program must be either foreign nationals or overseas Koreans who have obtained a bachelor's degree or possess an equivalent or higher level of education.
 - B. Research students must pay the designated tuition fee within the specified deadline.
 - C. Research students are required to register for at least one course during the course registration period; however, academic credits for the courses taken will not be granted.
 - D. The academic advisor for the research student's thesis will be appointed by the Dean of the Graduate School within one month of the first semester.
 - E. Research students may use university facilities such as the library and dormitory.
 - F. The research period shall not exceed one year. A certificate of completion may be issued to students who demonstrate satisfactory research performance.
 - G. If a research student engages in conduct that violates the terms of their status during the research period, their qualification will be revoked. In such cases, the tuition fee already paid will not be refunded.
- ※ The application procedures, schedule, and required documents for the research program (non-degree) are the same as those for the degree program.

- ※ Depending on the field of study in which a doctoral degree program applicant majored for his/her Master's degree, admissions can be restricted. The final decision on the acceptability of the applicant's Master's degree major will be made on the basis of the courses taken for the Master's degree program as well as the Master's degree thesis topic. The acceptability of applicants who majored in Korean Culture and Society at the GSKS for their Master's degree will be also decided according to the topic of their Master's degree thesis.
